

Energetic help when children see ghosts or the dead

Some children have the gift of being able to see subtle beings. These can be angels, elves, fairies, goblins, but also the dead. If they are not taken seriously, they stop talking about it, and are left alone with their feelings and fears. If adults deal with this topic, they should be aware not to show the child any fear.

Generally, most of these beings are neither aggressive nor malicious, but want to send us messages, or look for help themselves. There are beings that have been in certain rooms, buildings, or places for centuries, and do not want to be chased away. If you accept that there is room for all, there is normally no problem. Nevertheless should there be troubles, then we recommend consulting an expert with experience in external energies.

Normally, it is sufficient to spray the Angel Aura Essence "Energetic Cleansing" for a few days, and in persistent cases, over a few weeks. Possibly a basic cleansing with incense is a good idea.

A PRACTICAL EXAMPLE

Situation: Anton (aged 11) keeps telling his parents that his deceased grandfather is in the room, sitting in his usual seat, having problems to go over to the World of the Deceased. His parents find this ridiculous, and laugh at him. But, after a few strange and inexplicable things happen one day, they start to wonder whether Anton is right after all. They call in an expert on this topic. She contacts the deceased, and asks Anton's parents to spray all the rooms with the Angel Aura Essence, "Energetic Cleansing". From that day on, Anton has not seen his dead grandfather any more, and it has been quiet in the house once more.

Explanation: Not all the deceased automatically come into the next world after they have left the material world. Some cannot, or do not want to, follow the path into the light. Others switch between the dimensions, because they think they still have unfinished business in the material world, or they want to send a message. The Angel Aura Essence, "Energetic Cleansing" can build a channel of light where the deceased – accompanied by angels – make their way into the other dimension, and find peace there.
